A land of traditions

Sitting at the crossroads of three mountain ranges, the Val d'Arly is a tourist destination which still retains its own traditions and heritage. Part of the Pays d'Art et d'Histoire des Hautes Vallées de Savoie since 2006, along with the Beaufortain, Maurienne and Tarentaise areas, the Val d'Arly is passionate about keeping its local history alive and about sharing its fascinating past with visitors. The local cultural foundation FACIM provides around thirty accredited guides who oversee all the cultural events in this Pays d'Art et d'Histoire.

There's literally something for everyone! The programme features conferences, lectures, educational workshops, films, guided visits and even produce tastings.

Small villages, great spaces

Crest-Voland / Cohennoz

Whether you come with family or with friends, the human scale of this village resort, with its range of accommodation at the bottom of the ski slopes, is sure to delight you.

Its gentle and peaceful ambiance stems from the welcoming locals and the tranquillity of its landscapes.

It is also the perfect playground, both for learning a range of sliding sports and for thrill seekers.

An authentic village atmosphere in a resort that boasts the "Famille Plus" label.

Crest-Voland / Cohennoz has been labeled "Famille Plus" since 2018. The "Famille Plus" pictogram will help you to find activities and shops that are committed to a personalized welcome for families.

Flumet / Saint-Nicolas la Chapelle

This village-resort reflects the very soul of the Val d'Arly, encompassing Flumet and St Nicolas la Chapelle.

On the one side is the Val d'Arly's main village of Flumet, a medieval village brimming with history: a resort in the Espace Diamant ski area which is home to several local cheese and charcuterie producers, a dairy cooperative and great restaurants that serve locally-supplied produce.

On the other is St Nicolas la Chapelle and its little hamlet of Chaucisse, the perfect place for snowshoe walks and for getting away from it all.

Flumet and St Nicolas la Chapelle, with their two baroque churches, are also highlights of the Val d'Arly's Baroque heritage.

La Giéttaz en Aravis

In "La Giét", as this typical village nestled in the heart of the Aravis is known, time stops long enough to offer visitors an exceptional view from the top of its ski area over the mountain ranges of Beaufortain, Aravis and Mont-Blanc.

This village-resort is a well-kept secret – with its links to the Portes du Mont-Blanc ski area and 100km of ski slopes - a special place where you can get away from it all and actively enjoy the experience of its natural environment and snow conditions!

Heart of the Espace Diamant

Notre Dame de Bellecombe

Boasting wooden chalets, a snow-covered "onion bulb" church tower and old farmhouses, the village is a reminder of childhood holidays, with its hospitality venues open in the evenings for locals and visitors alike: a skating rink, bars and restaurants.

The resort itself, at the heart of the Espace Diamant, provides some great downhill skiing amidst the area's iconic peaks and lots of mountain restaurants for refreshment breaks, plus a range of other snowy activities: snake slide, dog sledding, paragliding...

PIOU-PIOU CLUB

For children from 3 years and up. The children are looked after in 2 snow gardens, one in the village and the other at Le Mont Rond, both of them at the foot of the ski slopes. All of the instructors are qualified to offer educational and fun lessons to kids. Each garden is equipped with a baby drag lift, a travelator, figurines and games, offering a secure space that contributes both to the reassurance of the parents and enjoyment of the children. Each child can take a test at the end of the week and win a medal that corresponds with their level. The ESF's principal aim is to help them discover the joys of skiing whilst having fun.

The instructors also offer:

- Various ESF tests
- Competition courses, performance tests
- Lessons in snowboarding, telemark, taxi ski, snowscoot, cross-country skiing
- Snakegliss
- Off-piste ski touring, snowshoe outings
- Paragliding baptisms

There are also instructors qualified in accompanying people with reduced mobility, equipment available to hire.
