A land of traditions

Sitting at the crossroads of three mountain ranges, the Val d'Arly is a tourist destination which still retains its own traditions and heritage. Part of the Pays d'Art et d'Histoire des Hautes Vallées de Savoie since 2006, along with the Beaufortain, Maurienne and Tarentaise areas, the Val d'Arly is passionate about keeping its local history alive and about sharing its fascinating past with visitors. The cultural foundation FACIM provides around thirty accredited guides who oversee all the cultural events in this Pays d'Art et d'Histoire.

There's literally something for everyone! The programme features conferences, lectures, educational workshops, films, guided visits and even produce tastings.

Crest-Voland / Cohennoz

Whether you come with family or with friends, the human scale of this village resort, with its range of accommodation at the bottom of the ski slopes, is sure to delight you.

Its gentle and peaceful ambiance stems from the welcoming locals and the tranquillity of its landscapes. It is also the perfect playground, both for learning a range of sliding sports and for thrill seekers.

An authentic village atmosphere in a resort that boasts the "Famille Plus" label, and until november 2023, the "Flocon Vert" label, for an eco-friendly tourism.

Crest-Voland / Cohennoz has been labeled "Famille Plus" since 2018. The "Famille Plus" pictogram will help you to find activities and shops that are committed to a personalized welcome for families.

Flumet / Saint-Nicolas la Chapelle

This village-resort reflects the very soul of the Val d'Arly, encompassing Flumet and St Nicolas la Chapelle.

On the one side is the Val d'Arly's main village of Flumet, a medieval village brimming with history: a resort in the Espace Diamant ski area which is home to several local cheese and charcuterie producers, a dairy cooperative and great restaurants that serve locally-supplied produce.

On the other is St Nicolas la Chapelle and its little hamlet of Chaucisse, the perfect place for snowshoe walks and for getting away from it all.

Flumet and St Nicolas la Chapelle, with their two baroque churches, are also highlights of the Val d'Arly's Baroque heritage.

Sites to visit

CHURCHES

FLUMET CHURCH

Saint Théodule church in Flumet was rebuilt in 1682 after the original 13th church was destroyed by fire. Particularly noteworthy because of its belltower in the shape of a medieval tower, its unusual design, rich furnishings and baroque altars.

SAINT NICOLAS LA CHAPELLE CHURCH

Saint Nicolas-la-Chapelle church, dedicated to the saint of the same name, dates from the 18th century. The baroque building is notable because of its belltower with double light turret, sculpted porch, murals and canopied main altar - unique in Savoie.
